

#27214

Modern Fully Furnished Office to Rent in Zakaki

€900 <sup>+VAT</sup> /month

 Zakaki, Limassol

Total covered area

 10 m<sup>2</sup>

Introducing this beautiful, modern serviced office space, now available for rent! This all-inclusive office comes fully furnished, with no hidden costs – internet, electricity, and other utilities are all included in the price, making it a hassle-free choice.

The office itself spans 10 sqm of internal space and is ideal for professionals seeking a functional, stylish workspace. Additional amenities include a shared kitchen, a conference room for meetings, and common restrooms, all conveniently located on the same floor.

|                          |                                                                                         |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type                     | Office                                                                                  |
| Status                   | Key ready                                                                               |
| Year of construction     | 2024                                                                                    |
| Energy efficiency rating |  A |

